Cures Dyspepsia; Trial Is Free

It is a popular mistake that only wealthy people who eat rich and highly-spiced foods suffer from dyspep sia, or, as it is also known, indigestion. The laborer in the street, the worker in the field also finds himself a victim of this disorder. Among the men.

Dyspepsia is indicated by a constant feeling of laziness, by loss of appetite and troubled sleep, by sour stomach and distress after eating, by bad complexion and police. The Oriental club, an organization composed of a number of leading Chinese, has offered a $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Saw the Murder Committed.

More of Chung Sin's confession became known late tonight, giving the actual description of how the murder was committed.

"Elsie Sigel was on the bed," said the Chinaman, while his hearers drew closer in horrified suspense, "and Leon was bending over her. A handkershief was sticking out of her mouth, and I saw the blood on it. She was fighting with him, but he only pressed he handkershief harder into her mouth. Finally she struggled no more, but lay still and Leon stood up and looked down at her."

Those who heard this recital were almost overcome with the thought that the house against such an emergency as constipation, sour stomach and distress after eating, by bad complexion and lusterless eyes.

There is no surer and speedier cure for this trouble than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which dyspeptics have been using successfully for twenty years. This great herb laxative compound cured Captain Clark, of Buffalo, Ia., of dyspepsia and sour stomach that he had had for forty. Years, or until the lucky day that he heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It cured Joel Adams of Montgomery, Ala., after suffering continuously for sixteen months. These are only a few of the many. But it is not expensive to be cured with this grand remedy, as it can be bought at any drug store in a 50-cent or $1 bottle.

Your very neighbors are probably life-iong users of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, but if you want to know without expense what it will do for you personally, send your name to Dr. Caldwell and he will be glad to send you a free trial bottle. He is actually anxious to have you make a test of his remedy.

Thousands of families everywhere keep it in the house against such an emergency as constipation, sour stomach and cured captain.

Those who heard this recital were almost overcome with the thought that Chung Sin could have 'stood by in the adjoining room without raising a hand to prevent it.
